My Pledge for Peace

Think about the conflicts that arise in your daily life at home with family, on the playground at school, and playing with friends. How might you resolve those conflicts in a peaceful way? Write your own peace pledge below. Sometimes it's hard to find a peaceful solution, but it's always important to try! Being kind and helpful is a great way to promote peace. Post this pledge on your bedroom door or on the family refrigerator so you'll see it often and remember to strive for peace.

Cupcake Toppers

Print this page on card stock using a color printer. Cut out the toppers below and poke them into cupcakes if you serve them at your event. If you want them to be two-sided, print a second set and tape the images back-to-back before you insert. You can also stick these out of the tops of books to decorate your party space, or tape the points around a pencil to turn them into pencil toppers!
